Campus Spotlight

DICKERSON PLACE—A CALMING AND PEACEFUL PLACE

Dickerson Place, named in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Earl (Corrie) Dickerson, is a rural picturesque campus located on over 100 acres of pine forest in Lincoln County. The campus includes two residential homes for children, an office with tutorial and activity space and a small pond at the front of the campus. As a neighbor in those early days, Mrs. Corrie provided the perfect opportunity to teach children to serve and care about those God gives us as neighbors. The children and staff often cut grass and worked in her yard. Mrs. Dickerson, a former schoolteacher, would on occasion invite children and staff for a visit to her nearby home and provide a little extra tutoring for a few when necessary. Campus Director Joyce Wilson remembers she would always acknowledge children's birthdays with a personally delivered $5 bill.

Children often come to the BCV without any sense of community and Wilson reflects on that sense of community and other benefits of a rural campus for a great many children we have served and do serve. For some it can be a calming peaceful place, she explains. On the rural campuses, children are surrounded by creation and staff can readily make connection between the purpose and plan for creation and God's purpose and plan for each child. The memory of one child in particular immediately surfaced. Soon after the child came to the BCV they explained, "I don't know what to do without my cell phone." Over time they were encouraged to connect with others, to enjoy some outdoor activities and to start reading. They learned to love reading and a variety of other things; and there was a noticeable change in the child. Psalm 46:10 comes to my mind, reflects Wilson, "Be still and know that I am God."

The Dickersons' own son, Horace, who was killed in a tragic boating accident as a young adult, loved the outdoors. The recreation/office building fittingly bears the name Horace House in his memory. He was a beloved son and husband and was serving as the assistant dean of men at the University of Southern Mississippi at the time of his death.

O'Neal House, designated for girls, was built much later in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson O'Neal by their children and grandchildren.

Client Focused Services

Providing quality care for children and families with an emphasis on the mind and the soul as well as the body has been a priority throughout BCV history. That focus on quality care has never been more relevant than it is today. One significant component is the application of Trauma Informed Care (TIC) (or to some the Trauma Awareness Approach).

Trauma Informed Care is effective in the care we provide for children and families partially because it integrates staff, family and others involved in the client's life. This integration helps build an understanding and knowledge of the trauma a client has experienced and its implications. SAMHSA (Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration) says, "Individual trauma results from an event, series of events, or set of circumstances that is experienced by an individual as physically or emotionally harmful or life threatening and that has lasting adverse effects on the individual's functioning and mental, physical, social, emotional, or spiritual well-being."

staff throughout the BCV to continually provide a safe and healthy environment for children and families and empower them to find their God-given strength to overcome often debilitating trauma.

TIC is grounded in four assumptions and six key principles that are woven into the fabric of the agency. These are seen in the illustrations included in this article.

- All staff have a basic realization about trauma and understand how trauma can affect individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities.
- Staff recognize the signs of trauma.
- All staff are trained to respond by applying the trauma informed approach to all areas of the organization, creating a physically, psychologically and emotionally safe environment.
- A trauma informed approach seeks to resist re-traumatization. Without training, often well-meaning people create harmful, stressful situations for already traumatized individuals.

THREE E'S IN TRAUMA

EVENTS

Circumstances cause trauma.

EXPERIENCE

An individual's experience of the event determines whether it is traumatic.

EFFECTS

Effects of trauma include adverse physical, social, emotional, or spiritual consequences

Three things are evident in this definition: First trauma begins with events and circumstances that pose a threat like an act of violence, natural disasters, severe neglect, etc. Second, the experience of this event varies from one person to another. Each individual assigns their own label or value to an event, thus an experience that has little impact on one person may be considered traumatic by another. Finally, trauma includes lasting adverse effects, and these effects may occur immediately after an event or be delayed.

A clear understanding of trauma and the philosophies of trauma-informed care enables

A TRAUMA-INFORMED APPROACH (FOUR R'S)

REALIZES: Realizes widespread impact of trauma and understands potential paths for recovery.

RECOGNIZES: Recognizes signs and symptoms of trauma in clients, families, staff, and other involved with the system.

RESPONDS: Responds by fully integrating knowledge about trauma into policies, procedures, and practices.

RESISTS: Seeks to actively resist re-traumatization.

Pray for children in residential care and their families; also for families in our Dorcas in-Home Family Support Program.

Tuesday

Pray for Houseparents and Case Managers who are providing daily for children and families. Pray for openings to be filled quickly.

Wednesday

Pray for support staff—Administrative and program staff who provide support for those on the front lines of the ministry.

Thursday

Pray for board members as they provide overall leadership and direction for the ministry.

Friday

Pray for the army of friends who pray for and financially support the ministry. It is God who works in the hearts of people to give.

Saturday

Pray for our Mississippi Baptist Convention under whose umbrella we serve—the leadership and the churches who make up that Convention.

Sunday

Pray for those whom we serve who have not accepted Christ as their Savior; and for spiritual growth in ones who have.

Ephesians 6:12 says,

“For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.”

The battle for the hearts and minds of BCV children and families is real and intense. Thank you, prayer warriors, for fighting for our children.

Staff Spotlight

Clinical Psychologist Randy Cotton joined the BCV team in 1999 after his pastor introduced him to the BCV Executive Director. Cotton appreciates the opportunity to work in an agency that takes a more holistic approach to helping children and families. At The Baptist Children's Village work with children involves the child, the family and other relationships that affect the healing process. Because the BCV is 100% privately funded and because of the graciousness of God through extraordinarily generous donors Cotton says, "We can do whatever the child needs regardless. We don't have to make things fit a billable code." Cotton finds fulfillment in his work with children and with those who care for the children, believing therein exists greater opportunity to effect more positive change.

When asked how his work has changed over the years at the BCV, he reflects on the greater need of children and families today driven by increased drug dependency, more availability of drugs, both of which drives more fatherlessness, neglect and abuse. There is no doubt Satan is attacking families today, but The Baptist Children's Village exists to take the gospel of Jesus Christ to at-risk children and families. Cotton finds comfort in his confidence in God and His power to defeat Satan and change lives for eternity.

Cotton observes also that there are greater resources today, like trauma-informed care. Such tools are guides, driven by research, that helps us develop a more specific approach to care, and makes us better able to recognize needs than was possible years ago.

Cotton has been married to Diana for 45 years and is actively involved in First Baptist Church, Flora. They have two children, James who is a firefighter and Cameron who is in college and aspires to be a counselor. The newest light in his life is his granddaughter, Lydia.

BCV Honor Roll 2020

The Baptist Children's Village is truly grateful for the faithful support of so many Mississippi Baptist churches. As your ministry through the Mississippi Baptist Convention, funding for the BCV comes from three sources, individuals, churches, and the Mississippi Baptist Cooperative Program. Thank you for helping us share the gospel of Christ with hurting children and families.

Each January we evaluate the cash gifts received by The Baptist Children's Village during the previous 12 months. In this evaluation it has become customary to list in The Baptist Record, Mississippi Baptist churches in descending order of their cash gifts. This does not include non-cash gift items that many churches contribute. This analysis has become known as the "Honor Roll of Churches." With the launch of the BCV Voice newsletter and in light of the exclusive digital format of The Baptist Record, this traditional "Honor Roll of Churches" report is herein published and available at baptistchildrensvillage.com/HonorRoll.

BECAUSE OF YOUR GIFT:

100% of BCV children were exposed to the gospel of Christ.

- ▶ 12 made professions of faith in Christ
- ▶ 3 received believer's baptism

You, through BCV case managers, provided:

- ▶ 179 medical appointments
- ▶ 77 psychiatric appointments
- ▶ 48 eye exams
- ▶ 107 dental appointments

Your BCV case managers had 1,278 interactions with children and 697 contacts and interactions with parent/guardians of the children.

Last year, your Dorcas Program case managers ministered to 28 at-risk families, including 139 children.

You made it possible for case managers to go directly into homes through our non-residential program and work to strengthen the families, so they can stay together and not be disrupted. They identify and address harmful patterns and inadequate abilities; and teach parenting and homemaking skills.

BCV Tribute Gifts

November 2020 – January 2021

Throughout the year, families memorialize and honor family members and special friends with a gift to The Baptist Children's Village. Small groups honor teachers and the special people in their lives. For each tribute gift received, the donor receives an acknowledgement letter and receipt, and a personal letter is sent to the honoree informing them of the gift given in their honor. Family members are informed of a gift given in memory of their loved one. The BCV is herein publishing the list of honorees and donors recently received. We are grateful to the many thoughtful donors who pay tribute to the special people in their lives.

You can use the enclosed envelope or visit baptistchildrensvillage.com/give to give a gift of honor or memory for your loved one(s) to The Baptist Children's Village.

Personal Reflection

I was reminded today of the intensely painful battle many of our children are experiencing. Satan is fighting for control of their minds and hearts. Oh, how I wish for them to "know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that they may be filled with all the fullness of God." (Ephesians 3:19) Sadly, it appears Satan is winning many battles in the lives of families all around us. Only our sovereign God can heal and win these battles that appear, through our finite lenses, hopeless. Please join me in praying, "Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever." (Ephesians 3:20-21) God is indeed able to do more—more healing, more saving, more encouraging, more consoling—than we can even imagine. I am reminded of some lyrics from a current Tauren Wells song, "Famous For":

Make way through the waters
 Walk me through the fire
 Do what You are famous for
 What You are famous for

Shut the mouths of lions
 Bring dry bones to life and
 Do what You are famous for
 What You are famous for

God of exceedingly, God of abundantly
 More than we ask or think, Lord, You will never fail
 Your name is powerful, Your word's unstoppable
 All things are possible in You

Our God is famous for accomplishing big things. We are looking forward to many battles won in 2021.
