Youth Detention Intervention

David* was estranged from his father for eight years, his relationship being thwarted by his mother. He found himself in detention for crimes he committed. While in jail he came to know the Lord and experienced a changed life. When he was released, he reconnected with his father who is a professing Christian and enjoyed a healthy relationship with him. With the encouragement of his father and BCV Youth Detention Intervention Director, Darron Byrd, he joined the United States Air Force. He has now graduated and serves his country and the Lord in a local church where he was baptized.

When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Matthew 9:36 (ESV)

The Baptist Children's Village Youth Detention Intervention program takes the gospel into Mississippi youth detention facilities where few have heard about a Savior who can free them from their captivity to sin.

Darron Byrd, Director of our Youth Detention Intervention program, explains, "Many of the at-risk young people today are 'sheep without a shepherd,' and they need to be introduced to the Great Shepherd of our souls, Jesus Christ. He is the only one who can redeem them, restore them and shepherd them into the life that their Creator intended for them."

Through this program Mississippi Baptists have the opportunity to see young people redeemed from rebellion to God and the authorities that God has placed over them for their good. Staff want them to understand the source of their captivity to sin and the influence of the enemy of their soul, the devil. Byrd continues, "The purpose of YDIP is to inform, instruct and equip the lost to see, believe and obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which in turn will provide the deliverance necessary to be reconciled to our heavenly Father and enable them to live a life of freedom in Christ."

Each week staff visit 100 children in four of Mississippi's 17 youth detention centers to share the gospel. Young people who wish to have one are all provided a Bible. Those who make a profession of faith have the opportunity to meet in discipleship groups where they receive instruction about how to study on their own. It is through this study they are taught they can live the free lives God intends for them, even though they are in physical captivity.

For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery

Galatians 5:1 (ESV)

The goal is to help give these young people hope for a different life and minimize the recidivism that is so prevalent in this culture of young people. As young people leave the facilities they are given the opportunity to connect with a local church where they can continue to be discipled and mentored. Without continued discipleship and the opportunity for healthier relationships, young people feel compelled to return to the familiar relationships they previously knew.

Today the program is operating in four detention centers and plans to ultimately have staff sharing the gospel with teenagers in all 17 Mississippi detention centers.

**Names changed to protect the confidentiality of all our children.*

Partners in Ministry and Life

Darron and Rachel Byrd met in church. She grew up in south Jackson and he in West Jackson. After she completed her Bachelor's Degree in Psychology, the two were married and just celebrated their 30th anniversary.

Today they serve together at The Baptist Children's Village ministering to BCV staff. Darron is the BCV Minister and Rachel serves alongside him encouraging and supporting couples who also work together in the ministry; and all staff in their efforts to serve as one body. Darron explains that each staff member has a unique role where they exercise their unique gifts and Paul admonishes us in Romans 12 and 1 Corinthians 12 to appreciate the gifts of others in the work of Christ as we diligently work using our own gifts.

Rachel says, "My favorite part is the relational dynamic. I enjoy getting to know the staff and I love watching them interact with the children." The Byrds are looking forward to helping staff as co-laborers. They hope to identify with them and walk alongside them in the challenges of mission work, helping them see a way forward when they hit those tough times.

Their work includes preparing weekly devotionals for staff and a quarterly statewide prayer event that involves all staff throughout the ministry. They also plan to provide spiritual enrichment opportunities throughout the year.

Darron received his Bachelor's in Theological Studies from Leavell College at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He also serves as BCV Director of the Youth Detention Intervention Program where he shares the gospel with children in youth detention facilities. Rachel serves as his Ministry Assistant for that program as well. The two have three children: Jordan and Ashton who are both at Mississippi College, and Brittni who is married and has two daughters.

The Baptist Children's Village exists, as part of the Mississippi Southern Baptist Church, to take the good news of Jesus Christ to at-risk children and families.

More Than A Fish Fry

By Kassidy Gautier
Human Resources Associate

In May 2022, our friends at North Greenwood Baptist Church hosted a fishing rodeo for BCV children. I saw houseparents guiding BCV children as they cast a rod for the first time, Executive Director Sean Milner teaching BCV children how to filet, and Support Center staff creating lasting memories with BCV children around the lake. Ultimately, I saw the strengths, gifts, and personalities of BCV staff collaborating as a ministry-minded team to take the good news of Jesus Christ to at-risk children.

In January, Star Baptist Church hosted a ministry-wide Fish Fry. to enjoy all the fish caught at the fishing rodeo alongside a large spread of desserts provided by houseparents on every BCV campus. Houseparent Garry McDugle prayed over the meal and recognized the BCV children who fileted the fish. Executive Director Sean Milner introduced Charlie Rogers as BCV Program Director, and Director of the Youth Detention Intervention program and BCV Minister, Darron Byrd, spoke an encouraging word.

"For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ, we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us." Romans 12:4-6

Throughout scripture, you see the Lord calling individuals who share a vision into teams. Jesus' ministry is the ultimate example, as his disciples were uniquely gifted and compensated for each other's deficiencies.

Today that looks like Houseparents on the front lines with BCV children, driving hours for ministry-wide events, and still taking extra time to provide a dessert. It looks like the Director of the Youth Detention Intervention program, Darron Byrd, taking the Gospel to unreached youth in correctional facilities (which could be outside most comfort zones) and pausing to encourage staff in the Word. It looks like Support Center staff making memories on the basketball court. It looks like the Director of Partner Ministries, Tim McWilliams, creating relationships with partners who host events like the BCV Fish Fry.

We are grateful the Lord has brought together a spirit-infused team of individuals, a "BCV Family," that will endlessly collaborate to take the good news of Jesus Christ to at-risk children of Mississippi.

Honor Roll of Churches 2022

The Baptist Children's Village is truly grateful for the faithful support of so many Mississippi Baptist churches. As your ministry through the Mississippi Baptist Convention, funding for the BCV comes from three sources: individuals, churches, and the Mississippi Baptist Cooperative Program. Thank you for helping us share the gospel of Christ with hurting children and families.

Each January we evaluate the cash gifts received by The Baptist Children's Village during the previous 12 months. In this evaluation it has become customary to list Mississippi Baptist churches in descending order of their cash gifts. This does not include non-cash gift items that many churches contribute. This analysis has become known as the "Honor Roll of Churches." This traditional "Honor Roll of Churches" report is herein published and available at baptistchildrensvillage.com/honorroll.

BCV TRIBUTE GIFTS

October 22, 2022 through January 15, 2023

Throughout the year, families memorialize and honor family members and special friends with a gift to The Baptist Children's Village. Small groups honor teachers and the special people in their lives. For each tribute gift received, the donor receives an acknowledgement letter and receipt. A personal letter is sent to the honoree informing them of the gift given in their honor. Family members are informed of a gift given in memory of their loved one. The BCV is herein publishing the list of honorees and donors recently received. We are grateful to the many thoughtful donors who pay tribute to the special people in their lives.

You can visit baptistchildrensvillage.com/give or use the enclosed envelope to give a gift of honor or memory for your loved one(s) to The Baptist Children's Village.

Personal Reflection

"Be still and know that I am God."
Psalm 46:10

Wait. Read that again . . . slowly.
"Be still and know that I am God."
Pause. Reflect. He IS God, worthy of exaltation. How are we, though, to understand the mysteries of who God is?

Have you, like me, read this verse and moved on with lightning speed to the next thought or to-do item? I am terrible at "being still." Even if my body is, my mind is racing, strategizing, planning. It takes a real effort for me to pause and meditate on the truths of God so that I can "know" Him more.

engage in inward activity. . . . It is His divine presence which attunes our distracted, worldly and earthly-minded souls to prayer. . . . Take plenty of time before you begin to speak (pray). Let quietude wield its influence upon you. Let the fact that you are alone assert itself. Give your soul time to get released from the many outward things. Give God time to play the prelude to prayer for the benefit of your distracted soul. Let the devotional attitude, the attitude of holy passivity, open all the doors of the soul leading into the realm of eternal things.

I understand that it is in that "realm of eternal things" where I can best hear from my Heavenly Father and learn of Him. My heart longs for those moments but my flesh is weak. I am, however, committed in 2023 to investing more time and effort into intentional quietude that allows me to hear more clearly from the God of creation.

Will you join me in this quest to know our God more fully? We might even find that we enjoy, and are strengthened by, a little of that intentional quietude.

Norwegian author Ole Hallesby, in his 1931 book, Prayer, explains this concept more poetically and powerfully than I could but his words resonated in my heart.

Quietude, even in the purely outward sense, means a great deal to our inward composure. Not until we have come apart from those things which divert our attention to outward things, are our souls free to
